Varied Programs At Lomita Draw Increased Patronage to Theatre

Nothing is too good for the patrons of the Lomita Theatre, says Manager J. D. Baker, and the array of pictures and entertainment scheduled for the next seven days is ample proof of the assertion.

Tonight the unsurpassed comedian, Joe E. Brown, brings laughter and tears in the appealing story of the circus, "Painted Faces," and on the stage are five acts of big-time vaudeville which will supply a variety of entertainment to please every body. In addition to all this, which is well worth the admission price alone, ten cartons of beer and ten heaping baskets of groceries will be given away.

Tomorrow night and Saturday the "Parade Girl" will be the attraction, with the accompanying comedy, and cartoon and episodes of two thrilling serials.

Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, the "Professional Sweetheart," a story of New York racketeering, presents Ginger Rogers, Norman Foster and Zasu Pitts. Two new serials start Sunday, one of them a thriller to be compared favorably with "The Bat" and other hair-raising, chill-producing mystery stories of recent years. "The Whispering Shadow" will keep you guessing until the last reel.

Five acts of vaudeville will be given Sunday, and Tuesday night that great novelty attraction, Tony Moreno's "Auction Block," when Tony auctions the clothes off the backs of the living models.

Wednesday and Thursday, another thriller, "The Monster Walks." And this is truly a tense drama of human passions and greed for gain, certain to hold the attention of the beholders to the last fadeout. On Thursday night, something new in features, "Race Night." A riot of fun and prizes. And on the same bill, three acts of vaudeville.

Attendance at the Lomita Theatre is increasing nightly due to the efforts of the management to present the widest variety of entertainment and novelties. Free parking on the lot next to the theatre, new equipment, new seats, new screen and many other improvements add to the comfort of the patrons.

GIANT BALER JUNKS OLD CARS SPEEDILY
Motor car manufacturers are taking steps to remove "junk" cars from the roads, according to a report received by National Automobile Club. Engineers have designed and built a giant hydraulic baling press, which at one stroke crushes a junk car in one minute. The "bale" is then dumped into a melting furnace. Almost 100,000 old cars have been salvaged to date and materials returned to productive use.

RIVALS

George Raft and Clive Brook meet face-to-face as the romantic rivals of Paramount's "Midnight Club." E. Phillips Oppenheim's drama, coming Sunday and Monday, August 27-28, to the Torrance Theatre.

Truck Overtakes Grass Fire Result

The Torrance fire department was called to a canyon in the Palos Verdes hills near Walteria Friday to extinguish a grass fire caused by the overturning of a truck which had got out of control as the driver was dumping some rubbish into a wash. The truck, belonging to the Belyea Trucking Company, and driven by Rex Caldwell, rolled into the wash and gasoline spilled on the ground which caught fire spread the blaze to the dry grass.

AMERICA'S SWEETHEARTS Together again!

Slim Summerville and Zasu Pitts In Comedy Hit Starts Tuesday

Scene from "HER FIRST MATE" UNIVERSAL PRODUCTION
Slim Summerville and Zasu Pitts are due back at the Torrance Theatre next Tuesday and Wednesday, August 29-30, in a delightful comedy picture, "Her First Mate," and to say that they have outdone their previous efforts is to put it mildly. The picture is a positive riot of merriment. On the same bill Tuesday and Wednesday, the management of the Torrance Theatre presents an exceptionally attractive vaudeville bill.

Fashions Created In Vaudeville Act at Torrance Show

Gowns Fashioned On Living Models Amid Lively Songs In Lively Vaudeville Bill

Diversity is the keynote of the stage unit which has been booked for the Torrance Theatre this coming Tuesday and Wednesday. Every act on the bill has been selected with care and the result is a well balanced bill filled with genuine entertainment.

A most elaborate attraction will be offered by Mons. Charles Cross, who with the assistance of four lovely models, presents a novelty which he calls "Song Fashions." With yards of silks and laces and a few pins, this gifted young man quickly creates costumes on the models before the very eyes of the audience. Walking costumes, party gowns, in fact, every type of dress imaginable, are fashioned and, as the finale, a complete outfit for a bride and her attendants are modeled. The act is filled with song and dance specialties by the five members of the act.

Comedy in abundance will be provided by Bob and Madeline Bonney, two clever mirth creators who have appeared recently over the RKO and Fanchon and Marco circuits. Bob has a style of working all his own and he is assisted most ably by pretty Madeline.

From the Hawaiian Islands comes Benny Newahl, king of the ukulele. Benny does everything but make this instrument talk and for good measure he always does several comedy encores.

Completing the bill will be Lee Wilmot and Irene in a smart dance travesty that never fails to score. Lee was for many seasons a feature attraction over the Public circuits.

On the screen will be seen Slim Summerville and Zasu Pitts in their latest laugh offering, "Her First Mate."

AIRPLANES REPLACE STAGE, CARRY GOLD

SAN FRANCISCO. (U.P.)—In decided contrast to the 40's, when gold was sent to western mints by overland stage, United Air Lines is now transporting shipments of gold bullion from the famous old South Pass district north of Rock Springs, Wyoming, to the San Francisco mint, company officials announced today. The bullion is being carried as air express. In the early days the South Pass section was famous as a gold producer, and the recent revival of gold mining resulted in re-opening of the district.
